

Welcome to Chennai, where old world and new age coalesce like possibly in no other major metropolis. Where classical strains cavort with new-age music and nourishing vegetarian fare nestles with the finest global cuisines. Where nine-yard saris vie with haute couture. Where an entire day of temple-touring (and Chennai is home to many venerable ones) is capped by an evening at a tapas bar. The fourth largest metropolis in the country, the capital of Tamilnadu, Chennai is classic, cool and contemporary.

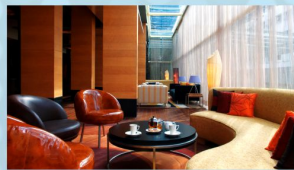

Contemporary meets chic in the Taj Club House. The cosmopolitan business traveller, the fastidious family, the globe-trotting tourist, the workaholic couple, the fitness freak, the gourmet, the health hunter, the high-spirited, the leisured, the discerning corporate house, the connoisseur – step into the Taj Club House and savour the legendary Taj experience, served with a cool, contemporary edge. A technology savvy hotel, Taj Club House offers complimentary wi-fi everywhere within its environs.

Setting: The hotel is located in the heart of Chennai's business and commercial district and is a convenient 17 km drive from the airport. Taj Club House is situated off the arterial Anna Salai, which showcases the best in shopping, the leading banks and Consulates, religious houses and wedding venues. It is walking distance from both Chennai's oldest mall and its snazziest, and a short ride to the principal and most concentrated shopping district in India. The medical mecca for many, the Apollo Hospital is a stone's throw away. The Museum and the Marina Beach make for quick getaways.

Culinary Destinations: Carefully crafted restaurants to whet your eclectic and discerning palate are arrayed across the Taj Club House.

Club House: This 24 hour European bistro with an Asian twist is your port of call for a savoury buffet or a la carte. If music with fine food is your indulgence, spend the weekend here soaking in music and grills and bubble brunches.

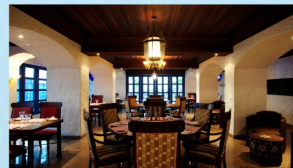

Brew: Settle for a refreshing cup of coffee or tea from an array of international coffee and tea flavours in this naturally lit tea lounge.

Beyond Indus: Starring exotic fare from Punjab, Rawalpindi and Sindh served in subtle, stylish, serene surroundings, this is your destination if you are craving a hearty, robust, succulent spread. Dip in the delectable Dal Indus, opt for your choice of vegetables, fish and meat and spices in the live cooking station – Indiyaki, a signature Taj Club House offering. Providing guests with choice and flexibility, rarely offered in these cuisines, is the culinary philosophy of the restaurant.

Rooftop Alfresco: Wraps, rolls, pizzas, burgers, subs, grills and desserts from a global menu to comfort your taste buds on this roof beneath your feet, adjoining the soothing blue of the pool, serenaded by the sunset or moonshine.

Kefi: The finest of cuisine from Greece, Morocco, Spain, Lebanon and Turkey for you to savour under the glittering skies or the cool confines of glass walls within the rustic Greek country house setting at Kefi, the rooftop Mediterranean restaurant. Designed to charm and create a joie de vivre among diners.

The Deli: Savour a sandwich or an exotic chocolate from the gourmet delicacies.

Bar: Blend is the go-to bar to unwind, let your hair down, enjoy exotic wines, spirits and liquors, and blend in with party-goers. This high-octane destination expands into a weekend nightclub. A contemporary bar, Blend serves unique cocktails and tapas, with liquid crystal house music electrifying the ambience.

Accommodation: Pick from a collection of 220 tastefully appointed Guest Rooms – Superior, Deluxe, Premium and Suites – Executive, Deluxe and Presidential. Each one bears the Taj Club House stamp of warm, contemporary furnishings, honey-toned anigre wood, traditional Indian artefacts, accent pillows, fitted with thoughtful amenities, creating an ambience that is chic, cosy and luxuriously comfortable. A clear view of the Chennai skyline is a consistent motif. Whether you are a business traveller, a fastidious tourist, a Head of State, head of a business empire, an artist and entertainer, a Chennai dweller, our fully-equipped and wired rooms assure you of the pleasures of a contemporary lifestyle along with modern leisure comforts. Our signature Weekend Bliss packages are crafted for your leisure and relaxation.
